

Prior to 8th Conference of the European Sociological Association

PhD Workshop, RN Sociology of Professions

Professions, citizenship and the changing worlds of welfare governance

2-3 September 2007, Glasgow, Scotland

Programme

Sunday, 2 September

9.30am Registration

10.00am Introduction Professions, citizenship and welfare governance
Ellen Kuhlmann, University of Bremen, Germany and Viola Burau, Burau, University of Aarhus, Denmark

10.15am Session I, Chair Viola Burau

Keynote lecture Julia Evetts, University of Nottingham, UK
Professionalism and managerialism: organisational control at a distance

Papers

- Autonomous – or left alone? Teachers and nurses and the new public management in Norway
Joakim Caspersen, Centre for the Study of Professions, Oslo, Norway
- Professionalism in the wellness sector: its impact on the orientation to the sector
Kate Formadi, University of Corvinus, Budapest, Hungary
- Professions and micro level professionalism: the case of social work
Andreas Liljegren, University of Goeteborg, Sweden

12.00am Lunch Break

1.30pm Session II, Chair Florent Champy, EHESS Paris, France

Keynote lecture Vittorio Oligiati, University of Urbino, Italy
Removing borders in the worlds of welfare governance? Law, policy and education after Bologna

Papers

- Higher education and the professional project in the UK
Shiona Chillas, University of Strathclyde, UK

- Questioning purity of the professions' soul: sociological analysis of professional strategies toward political verification
Bartosz Pilitowski, University of Nicolaus Copernicus, Toruń, Poland
- Evolution of the accountancy profession in Australia during the 1990s
Wendy Shelton, University of Sydney, Australia

3.00pm Coffee / Tea Break

3.30pm Session III, Chair Ellen Kuhlmann

Keynote lecture Elianne Riska, University of Helsinki, Finland

Crossing boundaries: gendered migration and the medical profession

Papers

- The Europeanization of the medical profession: a gender-balanced experience?
Joana Sousa Ribeiro, University of Coimbra, Portugal
- Professionalisation of midwifery in the Czech Republic: an ethnographic study
Emu Hrešanová, University of West Bohemia in Pilsen, The Czech Republic
- Exploring men's motivations and experiences in three female dominated professions
Hilde Karlsen, Oslo University College, Norway

7.30pm Get together (Glasgow city, location tbc)

Monday 3 September 2007

9.00 Section IV

Keynote lecture Ellen Kuhlmann, Germany, Pavel Romanov and Elena Iarskaia-Smirnova, Saratov State Technical University, Russia

Technologies of knowledge and professional power

Papers

- Establishing of financial knowledge and professionalisation of financial advisors in the Slovak Republic
Roman Hofreiter, Comenius University, Bratislava, Slovak Republic
- Professional skill as cognitive resource. An example of cognitive distribution in medical and mass media production settings in Spain
Dafne Muntanyola Saura, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, Spain
- How to know together? A study of health care professionals' attitudes concerning co-operation in Finnish hospitals and health centres
Sirpa Mertala, University of Lapland, Finland

- Efficiency or autonomy – Efficiency and autonomy? Reconstructions of interventions of public employment services (PES) staff members in Germany
Olaf Behrend, University of Siegen, Germany

10.30-11.00 Coffee / Tea Break

11.00 Section V

Keynote lecture Mike Saks, University of Lincoln, UK and Ellen Kuhlmann

Citizenship and professional governance: user choice and the public interest

Papers

- Professional power in the era of client-centred service provision: new forms of control and/or emancipation in Finland?
Anna Leppo, University of Helsinki, Finland
Riikka Perälä, Finnish Foundation for Alcohol Studies, Finland
- Becoming a team member: professionals' experiences in a chronic pain service multidisciplinary team in Portugal
Élia Paiva, University of Lisbon, Portugal

12.30 Lunch Break

2.00pm Session VI, Chair Florent Champy, EHESS Paris, France

Keynote lecture Viola Burau, University of Aarhus, Denmark

Comparing occupational governance across countries: challenges for research design

Papers

- Is it about power or ideology? The role of the medical profession in the introduction of new hospital payment systems in the Netherlands, Germany and the United Kingdom
Anne Marije van Essen, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, The Netherlands
- The professionalisation project of coaches in Australia
Elly Meredith, University of Sydney, Australia
- Transformation of the pharmacy-sector in Germany
Anna Henkel, Universität Witten/Herdecke, Germany, Email: anna.a.henkel@web.de

3.30pm Closing of the Workshop